

CONGRATS: Students from Y Pant are an enterprising lot!

ENTERPRISING: Y Pant pupils celebrate their award

Enterprising youngsters!

WELCOME to The Enterprise!

Well, Y Pant Comprehensive School's version anyway!
It may not be in outer space, but pupils at the Pontyclun school are certainly flying high on success.

They entered two teams in the Rhondda Taff Ely Area Board Final of the Young Enterprise Competition. The event took place at the Rhondda Heritage Park Hotel.

The competition was organised by Young Enterprise Wales in order to give pupils a worthwhile experience in running a business of their own.

The first company, Express Yourself, designed and manufactured handmade jewellery for a wide market and their product earned them the award for the Best Product. The second company entitled The Blue Sheep Company designed and manufactured personalised cards for all occasions, this company earned the award for the Best Presentation.

Both companies thoroughly enjoyed the competition.

Head of Business Studies Jayne Gavaghan said: "Both companies worked really hard, especially under the pressures of GCSE's. I am delighted with the awards and feel that it was an extremely worthwhile extra-curricular activity."
