

DRAMA EISTEDDFOD COMPETITION

YEAR 7

In groups of 4 or 5 you must imagine you are a group of advertising executives preparing a short performance aimed at promoting Wales as an exciting tourist destination. (Think of the recent TV advert campaign starring Rhod Gilbert for 'Visit Wales').

When rehearsing your piece consider elements such as:

- Use of humour.
- Interesting places to visit.
- What is it that makes Wales unique?
- Keeping the piece to advertisement length (Between 1 minute and 90 seconds)
- An engaging performance style.

DRAMA EISTEDDFOD COMPETITION

YEAR 8

In pairs or groups of 3 you must create an interview with a famous Welsh celebrity. There must be one interviewer who introduce the celebrity onto the stage and then ask no more than five questions. Try to make it as clear to the audience as possible who the celebrity is.

When rehearsing your piece consider elements such as:

- Use of humour.
- Use of costume.
- Use of voice/accent/impersonation.
- Topical information.
- Focus when performing.